That the Ranger of the said Park do give strict Charge to the Keepers, diligently and constantly to go their Rounds, and take care that they and the Gate-Keepers do their Duties in all respects, for the due Execution of these Orders; printed Copies whereof the said Ranger is to cause to be put up at the Gates, disperse and distribute from time to time as shall be requisite.

Given at Our Court at Kensington the First Day of July, 1712. In the Eleventh Year of Our Reign.

By Her Majesty's Command,

DARTMOUTH.

Kensington, July 8. The following Address from the Borough of Ilchester, was presented to Her Majesty by Edward Phelips, Esq; One of their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl Poulet, Lord Steward of Her Majesty's Houshold.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Bailiff, Capital Burgesses, and other Inhabitants of Your Majesty's Borough of Ilchester, in the County of Somerset.

PERMIT us, most Gracious Sovereign, to express in Your Royal Presence, our perfect Joy and Satisfaction at Your Majesty's late Condescension, in communicating to Your People those Advantageous Terms of Peace, by Your Great Wisdom and Goodness procured for them.

The Difficulties raised from Abroad, and unnatural Oppositions to this good Work, from a restless, turbulent Faction at Home, serve only to endear Your Majesty, yet more to Your faithful Subjects, by convincing them no Considerations whatever, can divert Your Majesty's steady Pursuit of their Interest and Felicity.

With what Admiration and Gratitude will the History of those Counsels be received by our latest Posterity, which discovered and defeated the close Designs of those who so long Triumph'd in the Misery of their Fellow-Subjects, Sacrificing their Blood and Treasure to insatiable Avarice and Ambition, hiding from our Eyes those things that belong'd to our Peace.

Such is our Confidence in Your Majesty's Concern for our present and future Welfare, that with all Duty and Humility, we crave leave intirely to submit them to Your Majesty's great Wisdom and Penetration, resenting, with the utmost Indignation, the Artifices of those who would infuse Jealousies, or create Misunderstandings among us.

May Your Majesty's Pious Endeavours in this great Work be Crowned with Success, to the utter Confusion of all the pernicious Devices of Your Enemies, the Satisfaction of all Your Majesty's good Subjects, and Your own immortal Glory and Renown.

The following Address from the City of Edinburgh, was presented to Her Majesty by Sir Patrick Johnston, their Representative in Parliament, being introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl of Oxford and Earl Mortimer, Lord High Treasurer.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Lord Provost, Magistrates, and Council of Edinburgh.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

THat it hath pleased Almighty God to prosper Your Arms to such a glorious Period, as to give us the joyful Prospect of an approaching safe and honourable Peace; and that Your Majesty hath been graciously pleased to make such a condescending Communication of the Terms which You proposed for a Peace, to all Your good Subjects, cannot but be most acceptable and obliging to all good Men.

The glorious Aims Your Majesty hath constantly had to secure our Religion, the Protestant Succession in the Illustrious House of Hanover, and our Liberties, and to provide what in Your Majesty lies, for the safety of Your Allies, and to ease Your good Subjects of their heavy Burthens, and to improve and enlarge our Trade, do certainly lay on us the greatest Obligations to all Loyalty and Obedience; which we hope shall be perpetually followed with our most hearty and utmost Endeavours to express the same in all the possible Duties of most affectionate Gratitude.

That Your Majesty may speedily and happily accomplish this great and good Work, to the Joy of all good Men, and the general Peace and Ease of Christendom, and long, long live and Reign to reap the happy Fruit thereof, are and shall ever be, the most serious and fervent Prayers of, may it please Your Majesty, Your Majesty's most humble, most faithful and most loyal Subjects and Servants.

The

The following Addreſs from the Borough and Pariſh of Agmondeſham alias Amerſham, in the County of Bucks, was preſented to Her Majeſty by John Drake, Eſq; one of their Repreſentatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Right Honourable William Lord Cheyne, Viſcount Newhaven, Lord Lieutenant, and Cuſtos Rotulorum of the ſaid County.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the antient Borough and Pariſh of Agmondeſham alias Amerſham, in the County of Bucks.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign!

YOur Majeſty's whole Reign has been one glorious Series of heroick Goodneſs, for, without delighting in War, You have firmly purſu'd it, with a View of obtaining the only juſtifiable End, a happy Peace.

We doubt not, Madam, but Your ſingular Tenderneſs for Your People, had brought this ineſtimable Bleſſing upon us ſooner, had not Your Majeſty's pious Cares been with great Artifice diſappointed by thoſe, whoſe Ingratitude to Your Majeſty and their Fellow Subjects, is as notorious as their boundleſs Avarice and Ambition.

Your Majeſty's late Condeſcenſion in communicating to Your Parliament the Terms on which this ruinous War may be brought to a happy End, is ſo very remarkable, that if we duly reflect on Your Majeſty's juſt Prerogative, we muſt acknowledge it the effect of Your extraordinary Indulgence to Your People.

Your Majeſty's Experience, Magnanimity and Wiſdom, and the Affection with which You have ever been moved to conſult Your Peoples Happineſs, leaves us no room to fear Your Royal Care, to ſecure to us and our Poſterity, all our Religious and Civil Rights and the Proteſtant Succeſſion, in the concluſion of this Peace, which is Your undoubted Right to compleat, and our Duty as well as Intereſt to ſubmit to and be thankful for.

The following Addreſs from the Borough of Clifton-Dartmouth-Hardnes, in the County of Devon, was preſented to Her Majeſty by Nathaniel Herne and Frederick Herne, Eſqs; being introduced by the the Right Hon. the Earl of Dartmouth, One of Her Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, their High Steward.

To the QUEEN's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Magiſtrates, and other principal Inhabitants of Your Majeſty's Borough of Clifton-Dartmouth-Hardnes, in the County of Devon.

WE Your Majeſty's moſt Dutiful and Loyal Subjects crave leave, with all Humility, to Congratulate Your Majeſty's moſt prudent and unparalleled Adminiſtration, in endeavouring to procure a Peace honourable to Your Majeſty, ſatisfactory to Your reaſonable Allies, and in all reſpects beneficial to Your Subjects, eſpecially to thoſe who chiefly depend (as we do) upon a Trade to Newfoundland, which Your Majeſty in Your late moſt Gracious Speech, to our great Joy and Satisfaction, has aſſur'd us will be effectually reſtor'd.

We are fully ſatisfy'd what Obſtructions Your Majeſty has met with, in the carrying on of this good Work, by the zealous Endeavours of ſome, whoſe Faction and private Advantage had render'd violent Oppoſers of ſo great a National Bleſſing; but, thanks be to God, their Endeavours, by Your Sacred Majeſty's great Care and Goodneſs, and Your preſent Miniſtry's Management, have been fruitleſs and in vain.

May God Almighty give a Bleſſing to Your Majeſty and Your Councils, that the Peace, ſo far advanced, may ſpeedily be concluded, that the Proteſtant Succeſſion, as by Law Eſtabliſhed, in the Illuſtrious Houſe of Hanover, may be as firmly ſecured as 'tis poſſible, under the Divine Providence.

And may God grant to Your Majeſty a long and happy Reign here upon Earth, and hereafter a Crown of Glory in Heaven.

The following Addreſs from the City of Worceſter was preſented to Her Majeſty by Sir John Packington, being introduced by the Duke of Shrewsbury.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen and Common Council of the City of Worceſter, in Council aſſembled.

May it pleaſe Your Majeſty,

WE Your Majeſty's moſt Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, do moſt gratefully acknowledge, and return our moſt hearty Thanks for that very gracious Condeſcenſion in Your Majeſty, in communicating to both Houſes of Parliament, the Terms on which a Peace may be made, a ſubject we own to be an undoubted Prerogative of the Crown. We moſt earneſtly pray for a Conſummation of that great and good Work, and can't ſufficiently admire Your Majeſty's Wiſdom and Conduct in procuring ſuch honourable Conditions, as muſt neceſſarily put to ſilence the factious Confidence of Deſigning Men, that delight in the effuſion of Chriſtian Blood, and the rebellious Impudence of others, who made it their Endeavour to diſcourage and divide Your Majeſty's Subjects, by repreſenting the Terms on which we muſt expect a Peace, ſo very diſadvantageous and different from what Your Majeſty has been pleaſed to Report. We alſo return Your Majeſty our moſt humble and hearty Thanks for Your great Care of the Succeſſion of the Crown in the Proteſtant Line; and beg leave to add, That we ſhall upon all Occaſions expreſs our moſt ſteady and unſhaken Loyalty, in defence of Your Majeſty's moſt Sacred Perſon and Government againſt all ſeditious Perſons and Practices whatſoever: And moſt heartily pray, that God will be pleas'd to grant Your Majeſty a long and happy Reign over us, that Your Majeſty may ſee Your Kingdoms flouriſh, in Peace and Plenty, to compenſate the Burden Your Majeſty and Subjects have felt by a tedious and expenſive War.

The following Addreſs from the Borough of Cliderow, in the County of Lancaſter, was preſented to Her Majeſty by Edward Harvey and Chriſtopher Parker, Eſquires, their Repreſentatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Right Honourable the Lord Viſcount Bolingbroke.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Bayliffs, Recorder, Burgeſſes and Freemen of Your Majeſty's antient Borough of Cliderow, in the County of Lancaſter.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign!

WE cannot omit this Opportunity of giving Your Majeſty freſh Aſſurances of our Loyalty, Obedience, and unalterable Inclinations to defend Your Royal Perſon, Prerogative, and the Succeſſion in the moſt Illuſtrious Houſe of Hanover, againſt all Oppoſition Abroad, and ſeditious Parties at Home.

We want Words to expreſs the Satisfaction we have, in that France is brought to offer thoſe Terms of Peace, which Your Majeſty has, out of Your Royal Condeſcenſion, communicated to Your two Houſes of Parliament.

May Your Majeſty live to finiſh the great and glorious Work, which in tender regard to Your Subjects, You have ſo far advanced, that they in their own Time may reap the Happineſs and Benefit thereof, eſpecially in their Commerce; and that Your Allies may enjoy all the Advantages Your Majeſty, in conjunction with 'em, hath ſtipulated to obtain; ſo that

Your

Your Subjects and their Poſterity may ever admire Your Majeſty's great Wiſdom and Care of Your People, and the Integrity of Your Miniſters.

The following humble Addreſs from the Borough of Haverford-Weſt, was preſented to Her Majeſty by John Longharne, Eſq; their Repreſentative in Parliament, being introduced by the Right Honourable the Lord Manſell, Comptroller of Her Majeſty's Houſhold.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The Humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, Common-Council and Burgeſſes, of Your Majeſty's Antient and Loyal Corporation of the Town and County of Haverford-Weſt.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

BEing truly ſenſible of Your Majeſty's great Goodneſs, in communicating to Your both Houſes of Parliament the Terms on which an Honourable and Laſting Peace may be made, we cannot but acknowledge it our Duty to return Your Majeſty our moſt humble and hearty Thanks for ſo great a Condeſcenſion, and likewiſe for Your Majeſty's Care of the Succeſſion in the Illuſtrious Houſe of Hanover.

And as we muſt always admire Your Majeſty's choice of thoſe Perſons, who have ſo wiſely managed Your Affairs at Home, and ſo diſcreetly carried on Your Negotiations Abroad, ſo we cannot but wonder at the Malice and Artful Contrivances of thoſe who ſeem reſolutely bent againſt Peace, however Advantageous for the Subjects of Great Britain.

May their Invectives retort on themſelves, and their Devices prove Abortive; may that great Work be ſpeedily ended, which Your Majeſty has ſo gloriouſly undertook; and that Your Majeſty may live to ſee the Effects, and enjoy the Bleſſings of an Honourable Peace, ſhall be the conſtant Prayers of, may it pleaſe Your Majeſty, Your Majeſty's moſt Dutiful and moſt Obedient Subjects.

The following Addreſs from the Town and County of Newcaſtle upon Tyne, was preſented to Her Majeſty by Sir William Blackett, Bar. and William Wrightſon, Eſq; their Repreſentatives in Parliament, who had the Honour to kiſs Her Majeſty's Hand, being introduced by the Moſt Honourable Robert Earl of Oxford and Earl Mortimer, Lord High Treaſurer of Great Britain.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Sheriff, and Common-Council of the Town and County of Newcaſtle upon Tyne.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign!

YOUR Majeſty's extraordinary Condeſcenſion in communicating to Your Two Houſes of Parliament the Terms upon which a General Peace may be made, is one of the many unparalelled Inſtances of Your great Goodneſs and Affection to, and Confidence in Your People. And we ſhould be wanting to our ſelves, and defective in our Duty to Your Majeſty, if we did not (amongſt the reſt of Your Loyal Subjects) embrace this grateful Opportunity Your Majeſty hath given us of returning our moſt humble and hearty Thanks to Your Majeſty, for the ineſtimable Bleſſings and Benefits we enjoy under Your Government; and more particularly at this time for Your Majeſty's exerting Your Power and Intereſt towards the eſtabliſhing a real Balance of Power in Europe; for aſſuring the Proteſtant Succeſſion as by Law Eſtabliſh'd in the Houſe of Hanover, for reſtoring and enlarging our Trade and Commerce, and for endeavouring to procure to Your Allies what is due to them by Treaties, and what is neceſſary for their Safety. And we doubt not but the Loyal and Satisfactory Addreſſes from Your Parliament, and the chearful Concurrence of Your People in all the Particulars thereof, may contribute towards the enabling Your Majeſty to overcome all Difficulties that may yet be raiſed, and may convince all Perſons any ways diſaffected to Your Majeſty's Perſon or Government, or to the Honour and Intereſt of the Britiſh Nation, that their private Deſigns, or ſpecious Pretences, can never create any Difference or Jealouſie between Your Majeſty and Your Subjects. And that the Expectation of all ſuch as propoſe to raiſe or advance their Intereſt, by ſowing Sedition amongſt Your People, will always prove vain and groundleſs. And that God Almighty may enable Your Majeſty to perfect this great and glorious Undertaking (which You have already ſo far advanced) and may grant to Your Majeſty Health and long Life to enjoy the bleſſed Effects of an honourable and laſting Peace, ſhall ever be the Prayers of us Your moſt dutiful and obedient Subjects.
